

Colony Tire & Service is Newest Distribution Partner for Continental Agricultural Tires

- Continental agriculture tires available for purchase through Colony Tire & Service
- All Continental radial agricultural tires purchased in the U.S. and Canada have warranty coverage up to 10 years

Fort Mill, SC. April 16, 2020. Continental's newest distribution partner for agricultural tire sales is Colony Tire & Service. With over 25 locations along the Eastern Seaboard from Richmond, Va. to Columbia, S.C., they provide maintenance, repair and tire care service for farm tires, along with tires for other industries including logging, construction, mining, ports, steel mills, industrial press-on-bands, passenger cars and medium trucks.

"We are very excited to add Colony Tire as a Continental agriculture tire distribution partner," said Matt Futrelle, sales and marketing manager US/Canada for Continental Commercial Specialty Tires. "With their large distribution network and over 25 commercial centers, they are a great fit for Continental right in the backyard of our South Carolina headquarters. Farming is a very important part of the economy in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia, and having a great partner to provide outstanding service to our farmers is key."

Available agriculture tires include Continental's Tractor70, Tractor85, TractorMaster and CombineMaster product lines, in multiple sizes. These tires are covered by Continental's industry-leading agricultural tire warranty, which includes stubble damage and field hazard coverage.

For a full list of available sizes, please contact your local Colony Tire & Service center by phone at 800-22-TIRES. Colony Tire locations can be found at <https://fleet.colonytire.com/locations/>.
