§ 1

Intellectual property rights of Continental right of use

The terms of use laid down in the Google Play Store – Business and Program Policies shall apply for the use of the app, unless otherwise determined by the provisions below.

The ownership of all intellectual property rights in the app, and associated works published and created by Continental, whether or not as part of the app, as well as their configuration in the app, remains exclusively with Continental and its subsidiaries. Any use, including reproduction, distribution or making available to the public, of such texts, pictures, graphics, animations, videos, music, sounds and other materials in other electronic or printed publications (especially in other apps or websites) is not permitted without the express consent of Continental or its subsidiaries.

Continental is entitled to use the trademarks and logos (the "trademarks") represented in, or associated with, the app. Nothing in these terms of use, and none of the information in the app, is to be interpreted as granting a license to use these trademarks. The conclusion cannot be drawn that the trademarks are freely available to anyone simply from the mere naming of the trademarks in the app. The express written consent of Continental is required to use the trademarks. The unauthorized use of these trademarks is strictly prohibited.

Continental will enforce its intellectual property rights throughout the world within the scope of the applicable legislation.

Content and use of the app, liability

Continental provides the smartphone application ContiConnect Driver App. The app allows to display tire related data (e.g. tire pressure, tire temperature) of a connected CPC System (ContiPressureCheck) on a mobile device and to provide warning signals and recommendations as soon as a tire related alert occurs. Furthermore the App allows to transmit tire-, vehicle- and quality- related data into the ContiConnect backend and to make this data available to the fleet manager.

The information provided in the app is not binding and is made available exclusively for information purposes. It does not represent any kind of offer within the meaning of the applicable statutory provisions. The information contained within the app may contain inaccuracies and typographical and other errors. The information on these pages may be updated from time to time and may at times be out of date. Neither we nor any of our third-party providers of information guarantee the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of any such information, nor its merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose. Commentary and other materials appearing within the app are not intended to amount to advice on which reliance should be placed. Save as set out below in clause 3, we therefore disclaim all liability and responsibility arising from any reliance placed on such materials by any use of the app, or by anyone who may be informed of any of its contents. If you feel that any information appearing or posted on the app is inaccurate, untrue or inappropriate or breaks any of the rules set out in these terms of use, please let us know by contacting us as set out below.

The information provided in the app and any products and services made available can be changed or updated at any time by Continental without prior notice. The app does not contain any guarantees or indications of quality for which Continental is liable, whether expressly or implicitly. The user shall not manipulate the app and shall only use such as set out.

Continental may restrict access to some parts of the app to users who have registered with Continental. You must treat all passwords as confidential and must not disclose them to any third party. Continental has the right to disable any user identification code or password at any time if in Continental's opinion you have failed to comply with any of the provisions of these terms of use.

It is your responsibility to ensure your computer or mobile device meets all the necessary technical specifications to enable you to access and use the app. The app is only licensed for use in accordance with these terms, on a device owned or controlled by you, and if you are a consumer, the app is only licensed for your own non-commercial personal use.

Continental cannot guarantee the continuous, uninterrupted or error-free operability of the app. There may be times when all of, or certain features, parts or content of, the app, become unavailable (whether on a scheduled or unscheduled basis) or are modified, suspended or withdrawn by Continental, in its sole discretion, without notice to you. You agree that Continental will not be liable to you or to any third party for any unavailability, modification, suspension or withdrawal of the app, or any features, parts or content of the app.

Claims of the user for damages that arise in connection with the use of the app and its content are excluded. This exclusion does not apply if you are a consumer and defective digital content which Continental has supplied damages a device or digital content belonging to you and this is caused by Continental's failure to use reasonable care and skill, in which case, Continental will either repair the damage or pay you compensation. §3

Data collection and data processing

Continental is aware that the protection of your privacy when using this app is an important concern for you. Continental takes the protection of personal data very seriously. Continental has therefore taken the necessary technical and organizational measures to ensure compliance with the regulations governing data protection.

Insofar as there is the possibility within the app of inputting personal data, the user divulges this data on an expressly voluntary basis. The user can and is permitted to use all the services offered, generally without providing this kind of data.

Where the user has given his/her consent for his/her personal data to be collected, processed and used, Continental will only use this personal data to process an inquiry or within the context in which the consent was granted and in compliance with the applicable data protection conditions.

In relation to the use of this app, please agree separately to the data protection conditions of Continental Reifen Deutschland GmbH. You can read the contents of the data protection conditions at any time within the app and the appstore. Continental Reifen Deutschland GmbH reserves the right to amend or adapt this data protection condition, to delete parts of it

Links to other websites

Links to websites of third parties can also be provided in the app as an additional service. These websites are completely independent and outside the sphere of responsibility as well as the control of Continental. Continental is therefore not liable for the content of any of these third-party websites that are accessed from the app and assumes no responsibility for the content, the data protection conditions or the use of such websites. The provider of the website linked to via the app is solely responsible for illegal, incorrect or incomplete content and especially for damages resulting from the use or non-use of the information of this kind that is offered. Save as set out in clause 3 above, Continental cannot accept any liability whatsoever and howsoever arising in relation to any such other websites (including, for the avoidance of doubt and not by way of limitation, any inability to access or delay in accessing any such other website) or in relation to any material or information appearing on them or which you may otherwise come across after leaving the app by way of a hypertext link or any other means.

Age Limit

The minimum age for the use of the app is 18 years. The user warrants that he/she is older than 18 years. §7

Availability of the app

This app is currently only in selected App Stores. Continental reserves the right also to offer the app worldwide in the future; this, however, does not imply the intention of Continental to announce in a binding manner that the app will be available throughout the world.

§8

Participation in our app ends as soon as the user uninstalls the ContiConnect Driver App. Additionally, if the user revokes the consent given upon first use to data processing by Continental, participation on ContiConnect Driver App will no longer be possible and will end.

Continental is entitled to end a user's participation on ContiConnect Driver App with immediate effect if the user infringes these Conditions of Use. In this instance, the affected user can only use ContiConnect Driver App again with Continental's express permission.

Independent of this, Continental can discontinue the ContiConnect Driver App online forum and associated services at any time subject to prior notice without giving reasons. In this case, the members have no claim to ContiConnect Driver App services being supplied (again).

Continental reserves the right to amend these terms of use at any time for the future or to supplement such.
