

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY POLICY

OF

CONTINENTAL INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED

(amended with effect from 22.03.2021)

1. Preamble

At Continental India Private Limited ('Company'), business success is not just about profits and shareholder returns. We believe in pursuing wider socio-economic and cultural objectives and have always endeavored to not just live up to it, but to try and exceed the expectations of the communities in which we operate.

The definition and scope of corporate responsibility is quite vast. Terms like corporate responsibility, corporate social responsibility, sustainable development, corporate philanthropy, corporate citizenship, corporate consciousness, responsible business etc. are used interchangeably. Now, the investors and shareholders are no longer the only stakeholders in the business. Business draws on resources both natural and social from the society and planet and provides products and services to the society. It forms an integral part of the society and is responsible and accountable to a wide range of stakeholders i.e. customers, employees, supply chain, nature, environment, regulatory bodies etc.

With the emergence of corporations and conglomerates, the pressure on business on corporate governance, ethics, values and disclosures have increased. Along with regulatory frameworks a number of voluntary frameworks and guidelines require businesses to disclose the manner in which the business is being conducted for example Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), ISO 26000, Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP), and Sustainability Indexes etc. In India, the Companies Act, 2013 mandates Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) activities to be undertaken by companies meeting the criteria specified in the Act.
